The "scarlet thread" in the biblical story of Tamar in Genesis is the origin of the Kabbalah practice of wearing a red string, which is now used as a spiritual charm to ward off the "evil eye". In the biblical account, a midwife ties the red thread to one of Tamar's twin sons, Zerah, to mark him as the first-born, though his brother, Perez, ultimately emerges first.

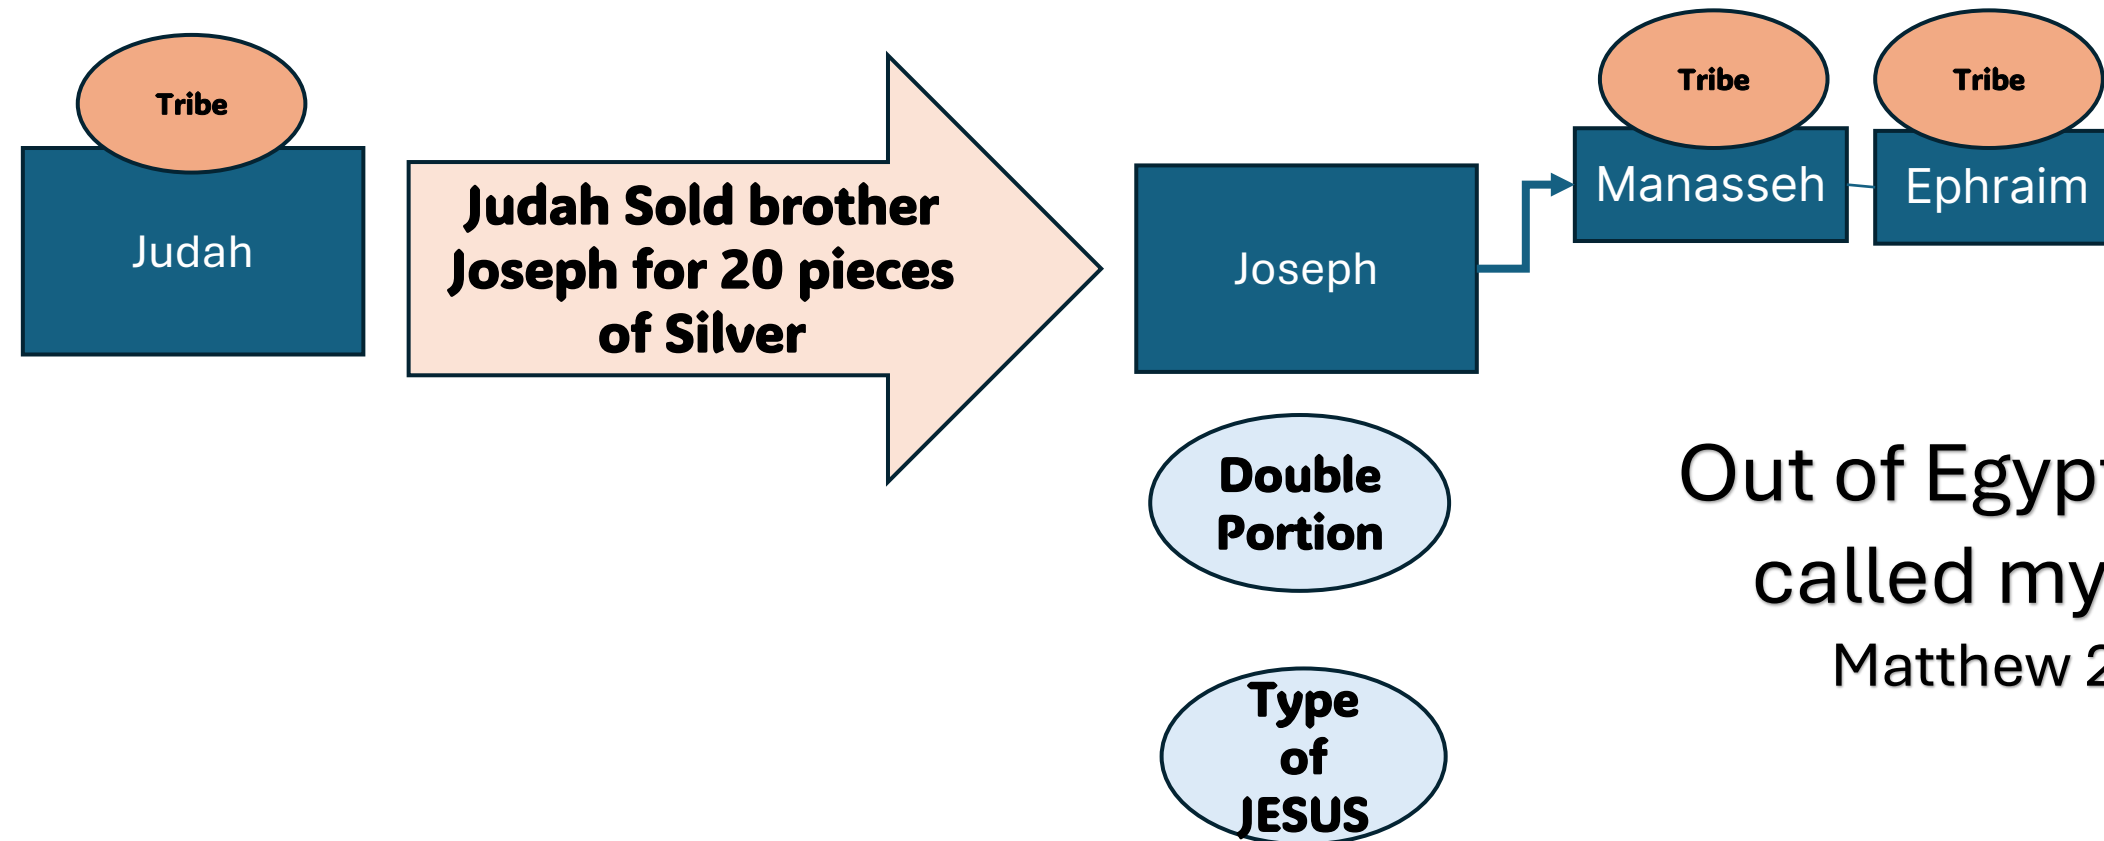

Sons of Jacob / Tribes of Israel

Manasseh and Ephraim – EGYPTIAN MOTHER

The Tribe of Manasseh together with Ephraim formed the House of Joseph.

Out of Egypt I have called my son.
Matthew 2:15

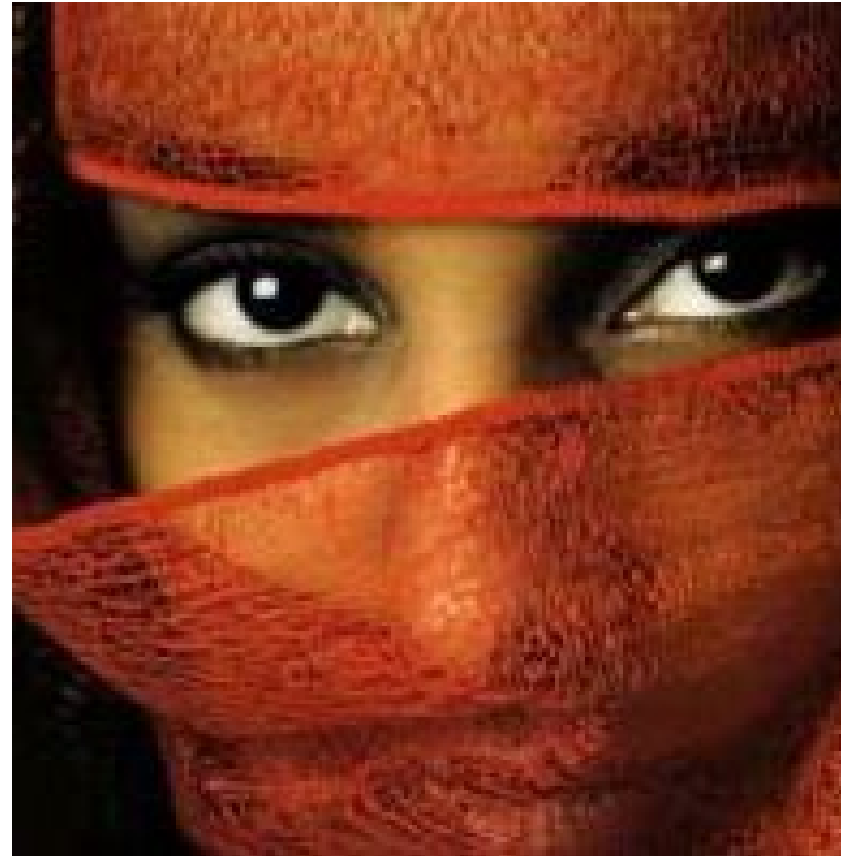

Genesis 38

- God had instructed the Israelites to NOT marry a Canaanite.
- Judah didn't listen and married a Canaanite woman.
- Mixed Blood Judahite and Canaanite – First three of Judah's Sons
 - Er, Onan, Shelah
- Judah got a wife for Er, Tamar (Israelite).
- Er was wicked so God killed him,
- Judah told Onan to go lie with Tamar and fulfill his brother's duty to produce offspring.
 - Onan spilled his seed on the ground, God saw that as wicked, and killed him.

Tamar Veiled

- Judah then told his daughter-in-law Tamar to “live as a widow in her father’s house until his third son, Shelah grows up.”
- Secretly Judah was not going to give Tamar the third son for fear he might die like his brothers.
- Tamar lived as a widow.
- After a long time, Judah’s wife died.
- Tamar heard that Judah was out shearing sheep and that his wife had died.
- She discarded her widow’s garb and covered herself with a veil to disguise herself and sat where Judah would pass by.
- Tamar knew that Shelah had grown up, and Judah had not given him to her as a husband.
- When Judah passed by Tamar, he thought she was a prostitute.
- Not realizing Tamar was his daughter-in-law he went to her and asked her to sleep with him.

Judah Gave His Authority and Power, his Sceptre to Tamar

- Tamar asked Judah, “What will you give me if I sleep with you?”
- He said “A young goat.”
- She said, “Will you give me something as a pledge until you send it?”
- They agreed he would give her his seal (authority), his bracelet (beauty), and his staff - sceptre (government power).
- He slept with her, and she became pregnant by him.
- After she left, she took off her veil and put on her widow’s clothes again.

Tamar Accused of Prostitution

- Judah sent the goat to Tamar with a friend.
- He was to get his pledge (seal, bracelet and sceptre) back.
- The friend went looking for the prostitute.
- The men in the area said there wasn't a prostitute where Judah had met Tamar.
- Judah said, "Let her keep the pledge or I'll be a laughingstock"
- About three months later, Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law is guilty of prostitution and is pregnant."
- Judah said, "Bring her out and have her burned to death!"

Judah's Sin Exposed

- As Tamar was being brought out, she sent a message to Judah, her father-in-law, “I’m pregnant by the man who owns these. See if you recognize this seal, bracelet, and staff.”
- Judah of course recognized his belongings. He said, “She’s more righteous than I, since I wouldn’t give my son Shelah to her.”
- Judah did not sleep with Tamar again.

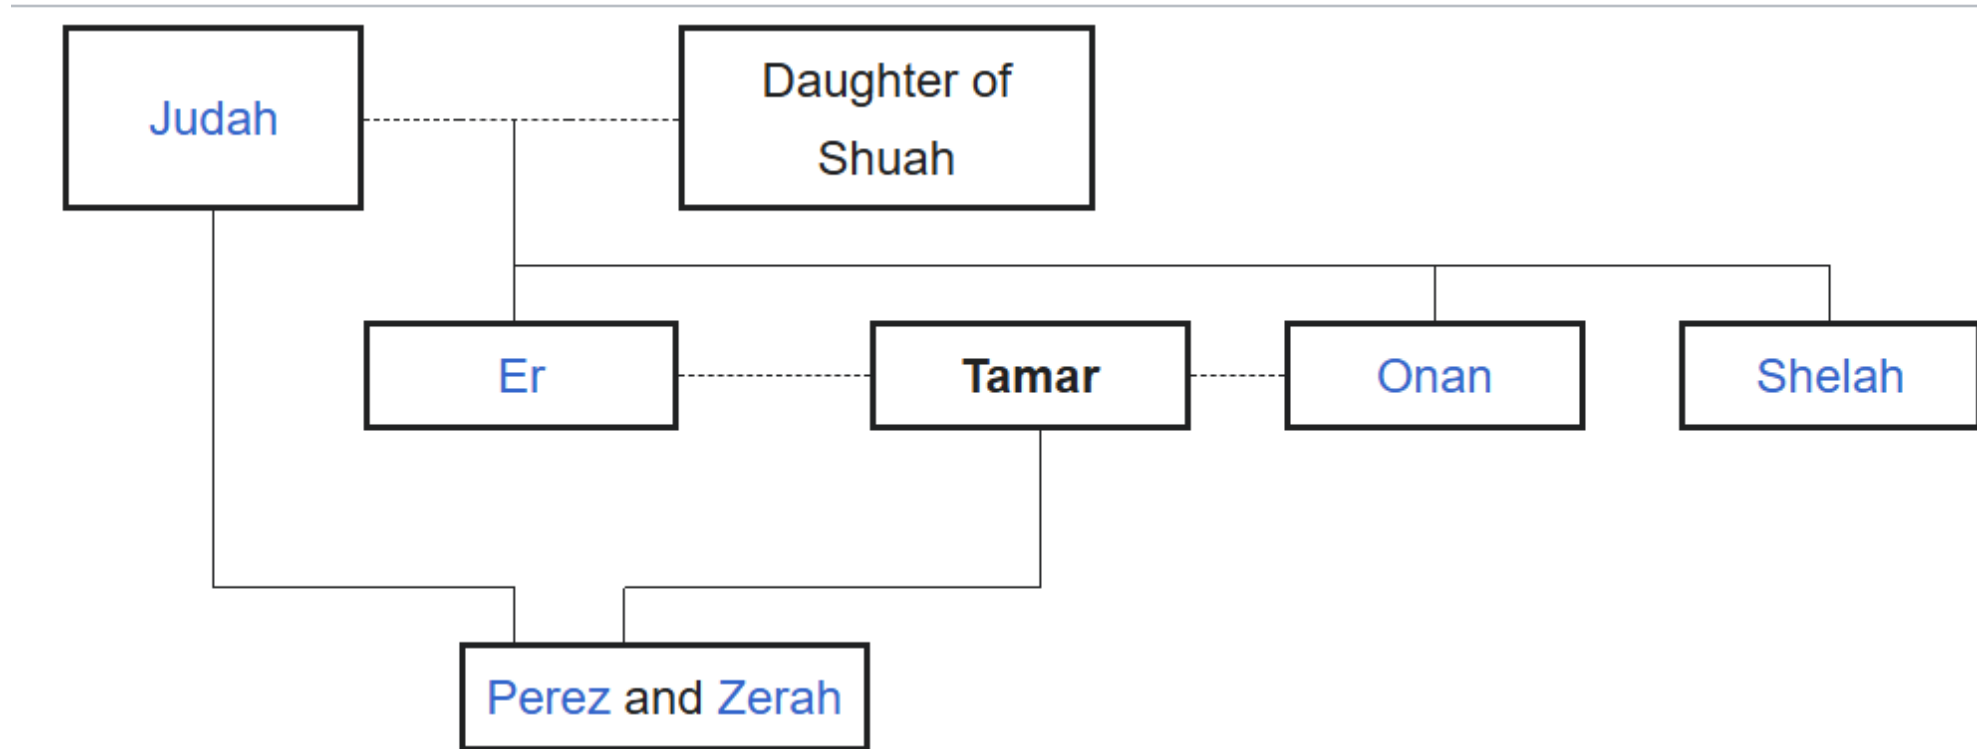

- When it was time for Tamar to give birth there were twin boys in her womb.
- The midwife knew there were twins in the womb. She had prepared herself with a scarlet thread to mark the firstborn.
- As Tamar was giving birth, one of the babies put out his hand.
- The midwife tied the scarlet thread on his wrist and said, “This one came out first.”
- But he drew back his hand, and his brother came out.
- The midwife said, “How have you broken forth? This breach be upon you.”
- He was named Pharez = BREACH, breaching his brother’s birthright, A BREAKING FORTH. He was named this because he came out after his brother had stuck his hand out.
- Then the brother who had the scarlet thread on his wrist came out and was given the name of Zarah = a RISING LIGHT; like the rising sun.

Pharez and Zerah Were Born

Both Perez and Zerah were from the tribe of JUDAH.

The Most Important Tribe JUDAH.

King David was from Judah.
Rahab, the Harlot, became the mother of Boaz, a Type of Jesus
JESUS was from Judah.

God made a promise that there would never come a time when one of Judah's seed did not sit on a throne.

The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh [MESSIAH] come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Genesis 49:10

Judah's Sons

- Judah – 3 Sons by Canaanite
- Mixed Blood – Children from this line could not be Royal.
 - Er - Died
 - Onan - Died
 - Shelah – Traveled and lived with the Israelites
- Pure Blood by Tamar - the ROYAL LINE could only be from pure blood
(ex daughter-in-law - Israelite)
 - Twins
 - Pharez – Ancestor of King David and Jesus
 - Zerah – Scarlet thread on his hand

If Shelah had been given to Tamar and they would have had a son, would not have been the mother of the royal bloodline.

The Genealogy of Jesus Includes BOTH Boys

- The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.
- Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas [JUDAH] and his brethren;
- And Judas begat Pharez and Zarah of Tamar; and Pharez begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram; And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon; 5And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; 6And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias; 7And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa; 8And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias; 9And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias; 10And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias; 11And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon: And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel; 13And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; 14And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; 15And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;
- And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.
- So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations. Matthew 1

Why are the two sons of Judah named here?

- The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.
- Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas [JUDAH] and his brethren;
- And Judas begat Pharez and Zarah of Tamar; and Pharez begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram

Why Does it Not Say...

Abraham, father of Issac and Ishmael?

Isaac, father of Jacob and Esau?

Jacob, father of Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah?

The Tribes Split Due to Solomon's Sin

- The Israelites were split into two kingdoms under Solomon's son, King Rehoboam due to the sins of Solomon.
- There were two separate kings in two separate kingdoms.
- The Kingdom of Israel (10 tribes) – North; Capital Samaria and the Kingdom of Judah (2 tribes) – South; Capital Jerusalem.
- Both Kingdoms were taken captive.
- First Israel, then 130 years later, Judah.
 - Kingdom of Israel by the Assyrians – 722 BC
 - The “lost” ten tribes were then scattered and without a King.
 - Kingdom of Judah by the Babylonians – 597 BC
 - Tribes of Judah and Benjamin
- Captivity ENDED KINGSHIP in both Kingdoms.
- What happened to God's promise?
- When Jesus came, the Jews were looking for a King.

The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh [MESSIAH] come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Genesis 49:10 was the Prophet over all nations.

Zedekiah Last King of Judah (597-586 BC)

The prophet was Zedekiah's maternal grandfather and counselor, yet "he did evil in the sight of the Lord and led the people astray through idolatry" (2 Kings 24:19-20; 52:2-3).

NO KINGS After Zedekiah, Male Lineage Killed

- There were kings from the Tribe of Judah from the lineage of Pharez on the throne until Judea was led into Babylonian captivity.
- Zedekiah was the last king of Judah in Palestine.
- All of Zedekiah's sons died causing the end of the Pharez male lineage – around 586 BC.
- What happened to the promise of the Lord after that?

The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh [MESSIAH] come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Genesis 49:10

Prophet Had a Special Calling

- Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.
- See, I have this day set thee [] over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant. 1:5,10
- He was a Jew, from the tribe of LEVI, living in Judea.
- He was set as a prophet over all the nations of Israel.
- He was sent to warn Kingdom of Judah of their sins and the coming invasion and captivity from Nebuchadnezzar unless they repented.
- King Zedekiah would not listen.

The Weeping Prophet

Was Called to Keep a King on the Throne?

- The last king to sit on that throne of David was Zedekiah of Judah. He was thrown down off it and the throne rooted out of the Kingdom of Judah nearly 600 years before Jesus came on the scene.
- The governments of the Kingdoms of Judah and Israel ceased.
- Some believe was sent to build and plant these back so the promise to Jacob would stay intact.
- The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh [MESSIAH] come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Genesis 49:10

Only a Remnant was Left in Judea

- was a mediator between Nebuchadnezzar and Judah.
 - He warned of the sin, yet Judah would not repent.
- Zedekiah the last king of Judah was killed.
- All of Zedekiah's sons were killed.
- Most of the people were taken captive to Babylon.
- was also taken captive, but King Nebuchadnezzar let him go free (40:1-5)
- went to back to Judea, to Mizpah, and dwelt with the people who were left in the land. (v. 6)
- Jerusalem had been destroyed.
- King Nebuchadnezzar sent a man, Gedeliah to Judea and made him governor over those who remained – a remnant of Jews.
- Gedeliah was assassinated by the King of Ammon along with many of the remnant.
- But survived.

's Warning was not Heeded

- Now the Ammonites were taking over Judea.
- During the raid, and his great granddaughters, Zedekiah's daughters (David's dynasty) were taken captive. (41:10)
- The Israelite officers were able to free the remnant but were afraid of King Nebuchadnezzar and wanted to take the captives and flee to Egypt.
- However, gave a warning from the Lord to not to take them to Egypt. The Lord said he would protect them from King Nebuchadnezzar. The Lord said if you stay here, I will plant you and restore you to your land.
- said that if they chose to go to Egypt, King Nebuchadnezzar would overtake them, and they would die.
- But the arrogant Israelite leaders ignored and took the remnant to Egypt. (42:7-16)

The Israelite Remnant was Taken to Egypt

- All the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;
- Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah and the prophet, and Baruch ('s companion and secretary).
- So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes (SUEZ CANAL). 43:5-7
- Once they reached Egypt God warned through the remnant would die there by sword and famine. 44:12-14
- However, a small number would escape and return to Judea. Specifically, God had promised that wherever and Baruch went they would be protected, because God had a mission for . God told he would go to a strange land that he did not know. 15:20-21; 44:28; 45:2-5

How would the Remnant Get Out of Egypt?

- It is believed the prophecy of , and the remnant is continued in Isaiah 37:32-35.
 - And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:
- Would the remnant with and at least one of the King's daughters take root and be replanted and bear fruit?
- Many think this information has recently been revealed according to Daniel 12:4.
 - But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

The Sceptre Shall Not Depart from JUDAH

- King David's line was to remain on the throne.
 - The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh [MESSIAH] come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.
Genesis 49:10
- How would that happen now that the remnant was in Egypt and all of King Zedekiah's sons were dead?
- HISTORY – LEGEND – AND BIBLE MIXED FROM THIS POINT FORWARD – YOU BE THE JUDGE.
- In order for the prophecy to be fulfilled, a marriage must take place between King Zedekiah's daughter who was from the bloodline of the Tribe of Judah to a King from the line of Zerah who was also the bloodline of the Tribe of Judah.
- This would also heal the breach.
- They must rule over the House of Israel to join the two Kingdoms back together into one.

Herod the Great, who ruled from 37 B.C. to 4 B.C., was not a descendant of David and was appointed by the Romans as a client king, marking a significant break from the earlier Davidic monarchy.

A Change of Kings

- In Ezekiel 21:25-26 God is said that those who are low and abased in royal power would be exalted and those who are high in power would be abased.
- Some believe this is referring to the switch with Pharez's line overturned, and Zerah's line to be exalted and there would be three overturns to the throne before Jesus comes.
 - And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel (Zedekiah), whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.
 - I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him. Ezekiel 21:26-27
- The diadem is not to cease, but a change is to take place, the throne is to be overturned and another will wear the crown.
- The House of Judah has been high and the House of Israel has been low.
- Additional biblical support for this is Ezekiel 17

- The royal group left Egypt sailing in a ship of Tyre, piloted by a Danite.
- , the King's daughter, Tea Tephi, traveled from the Middle East to Ireland, bringing with them significant relics, including the Stone of Scone (also known as the Lia Fail or Stone of Destiny), which is believed to be the stone upon which Jacob rested his head at Bethel.
- They also took the Ark of the Covenant and David's Harp with them.
- They came to the Rock of Gibraltar in the British Isles. There Tea Tephi was proclaimed Queen by someone in the Tribe of Gad. The Ark was kept in a cave at the Rock.

Teia Tephi Daughter of the Last King of Jerusalem

Britannia Identified | Teia Tephi: daughter of the last king of Jerusalem 583BC

The True History

On 18 June 583 BC a teenage queen: Teia Tephi, revealed by JAH as being Britannia, landed, via Gibraltar, at Howth Ireland with the king of Cornwall's navy escort, having escaped the fall of Jerusalem with Jeremiah the Prophet and a few others; them bringing the Ark of The Covenant, some relics of Israel, the Coronation Stone, a.k.a. Jacob's Pillar, Lia Fail/the Stone of Destiny. At Tara she married Eochaidh, the Irish High-king of the Zarah (red - hand) line of Judah, she being of the Pharez (David) line of Judah, which is symbolised on the Ulster flag. The marriage sealed the breach, as prophesied, and she was crowned queen of Ireland at The Hill of Tara.

All in her autobiography JAHTruth.net/tephi Joshua, son of Nun, of Bible fame, was an earlier temporary resident of Gibraltar who built Nun's Well, at Europa Point.

More Interesting facts:

She and Eochaidh and their supporters won the war to reinstate The Laws of Moses, bringing prosperity to Ireland, hence her warrior fame. Eochaidh was wrongfully deified as Daighda the god in pain, because of a lifelong injury he sustained while saving Tephi from an assassination attempt.

She is the connection between king David and the current British monarchy JAHTruth.net/britca, hence her lion of Judah, and she carries the flag of the Union (of the 12 tribes of) Jack(ob): the British Isles, USA, the rest of the Commonwealth and others.

Her trident is from Gibraltar JAHTruth.net/gibralta, where they spent 5 months, which is also symbolized as the lion (Gibraltar's shape), and where she was also crowned its queen - there's a Gibstown in Ireland and an Irishtown in Gibraltar! The Ark of The Covenant spent those 5 months in St. Michael's Cave.

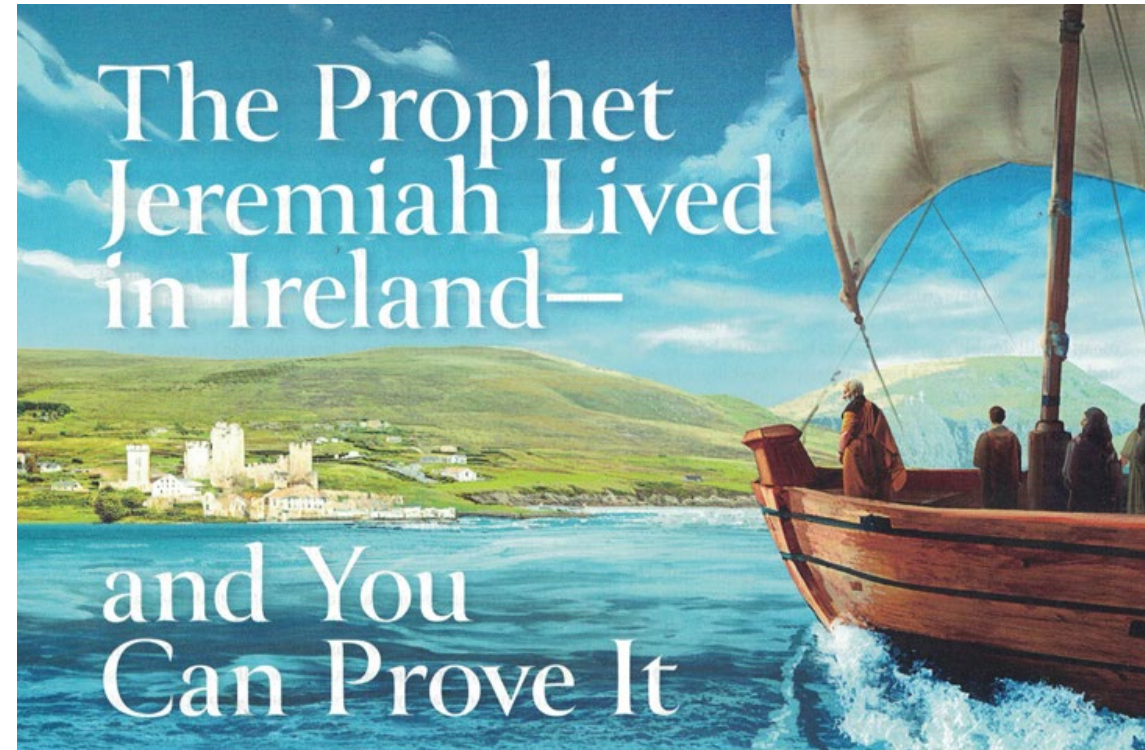

It's now under The Hill of Tara Ireland

- Only one place in the world claims to have the grave of the Prophet Jeremiah.
- Only one country tells the story of an old man who brought a King's daughter from Egypt with his scribe Baruch.
- Only one country claims the Harp of David for its Arms.

The Bible reveals exactly where Jeremiah traveled after the fall of Jerusalem in 585 B.C.

By Brad Macdonald and Richard Palmer

DID THE PROPHET JEREMIAH REALLY SPEND HIS twilight years in Ireland?

In his book The United States and Britain in Prophecy, Herbert W. Armstrong explained that, sometime in the late sixth century B.C., Jeremiah traveled to the "Emerald Isle," along with the daughters of King Zedekiah of Judah. Upon his arrival, Jeremiah established the throne of David and introduced a culture and a system of law and government that was rooted in the legacy of Jerusalem's King David.

Some reject this teaching. They mock it as myth and

GOD'S PROMISE TO KING DAVID

David, ancient Israel's most famous king, was more significant than most people realize. He was much more than a great warrior, or a great king and prophet. He was more than just "a man after God's own heart" (Acts 13:22). King David was the recipient of a towering promise from God, a promise that encapsulates a wonderful vision for all humanity.

We first read of this promise in 2 Samuel 7. By this point, King David was well established on Israel's throne, and God was explaining the future of David and his royal progeny. In verses 12-14, God promises David, "And when thy days be fulfilled, and

- Then they headed for Spain via another ship. A storm blew their ship to Cornwall, British Isle. Their ship was repaired, and a message was sent to the King of Ireland that the Queen of Jerusalem was on the way.
- The King of Ulster Northern Ireland sent a ship to meet them.
- was warned by God to take the Ark in a separate ship.
- Tea Tephi arrived near Dublin Ireland on 18th of June 583 B.C with Jacob's stone.
- She was escorted to the Hill of Tara to a house prepared for her. The Druids wrote "Jerusalem" over the door.
- The Hill of Tara is traditionally recognized as the inauguration site and seat of the High Kings of Ireland, a role it held from the Iron Age through the Early Christian Period.
- At Tara, there were a number of priests of the satanic Baal-religion who had erected a phallic-pillarstone as part of their worship of the mythical gods of pagan Baal fertility.

The Hill of Tara's (in Royal County Meath) name derives from Torah, the first five books of The Old Testament: Pentateuch: Books of Moses.

The original Torah, which was placed in The Ark of The Covenant, as a witness against true Israel: the British people, is now under the Mound of The Hostages at Tara, together with David's harp (an Irish symbol), Aaron's robes and Breastplate, and some other relics from the first Temple, built by Solomon.

Tara was the seat of the High-kings of Ireland, until the monarchy, together with Jacob's Pillar, moved to Scotland with Fergus Mor in about 500AD, and then to England with Edward I 'Longshanks' in 1296AD.

The History in Three Parts

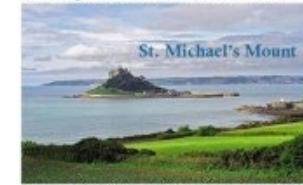

Escape From Jerusalem's Fall

It starts with the sacking of Jerusalem after several prophetic warnings to king Zedekiah: Teia's dad, to return to The Laws of Moses. The Kingdom of Judah is carried off captive to Babylon. The Prophet Jeremiah with Baruch, his scribe, and Teia and her two sisters escape to Tanis Egypt, after hiding under the Temple Mount in Jerusalem; taking with them The Ark of the Covenant, Jacob's Pillar and some other relics of Israel, and where Pharaoh Hophra adopts her as his daughter.

Journey to the British Isles

After some time the party sails for Ireland, via Carthage, Italy, Eastern Spain, Gibraltar, Western Spain and England. The journey includes some harrowing adventures like Teia cursing Gibraltar's Neptune worship; breaking his idol; taking his trident and being crowned its queen; foiling an assassins' plot (1st one) and broken oars and rudder in a storm before landing at Marazion Cornwall, whose king wept bitter (mara) tears when he heard of Jerusalem's (zion) fall.

Settling in Ireland

Teia marries the Irish High-king: Eochaidh, for love, is crowned queen at Tara, and they lead their supporters in a war to reinstate The Laws of Moses, which brings peace and prosperity to the whole of Ireland. The couple tragically loses their eldest and most spoilt child. They have an adventurous rule. Eochaid teaches The Law. Teia sets up games to commemorate The Law. Her body is buried at Tara with The Ark of The Covenant.

The Hill of Tara was the residence of the High Kings, who, in ancient times, ruled over Ireland.

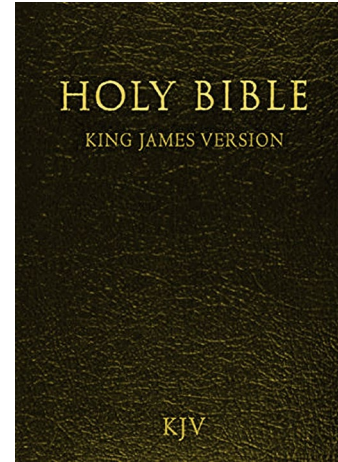

Jacob's Stone

- Tea ordered that the obscene stone phallus be removed immediately and the Bethel Stone / Lia Fail (God's Throne of Israel) be put in its place on the Forrad (Inauguration Mound).
- They removed the stone phallus and buried it in the mound.
- In 598 the First King of Scotland moved the Bethel stone from Ireland to Scotland.
- Monarchs sat on the Stone of Scone itself, until a wooden platform was added in the 17th century.
- In 1296, the forces of Edward I of England captured it during Edward's invasion of Scotland.
- The Stone has been used in the coronation of English monarchs and British monarchs for over 500 years. It was fitted into a chair.

Jacob's Stone

- July 1603 King James I of England, (KJ Bible) was crowned at Westminster Abbey on the stone.
- He was the first Scottish King to be crowned in the Chair and this coronation united the crowns of Scotland and England.
- In 1996, the stone was returned to Scotland, and kept in Edinburgh Castle with the Honours of Scotland.
- In September 2022, the stone was temporarily returned to Westminster Abbey for the coronation of Charles III.
- It is transported to London for use at coronations under the supervision of the Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland.
- Since March 2024, it has been on permanent public display in Perth (Scotland).

Returning the stone, 1996

Moved Back to the Center

The phallus stone was moved back to the center of the Hill of Tara in Ireland around 1839.

The stone was said to have mystical powers and was traditionally believed to roar when the true king stood upon it, though this power is said to have been lost after the birth of Christ.

The Breach was Restored

- Tea Tephi married the high King of Ulster. He was from the bloodline of Zarah (of the Red Hand).
- The Red Hand with the Scarlet Cord was the emblem of Ulster.
- They gave their pledges of marriage over the Lia Fail-Bethel Stone, and Tea Tephi stood upon the Lia Fail and was acknowledged queen of all Ireland.

THE EMBLEMS OF ZARA-JUDAH

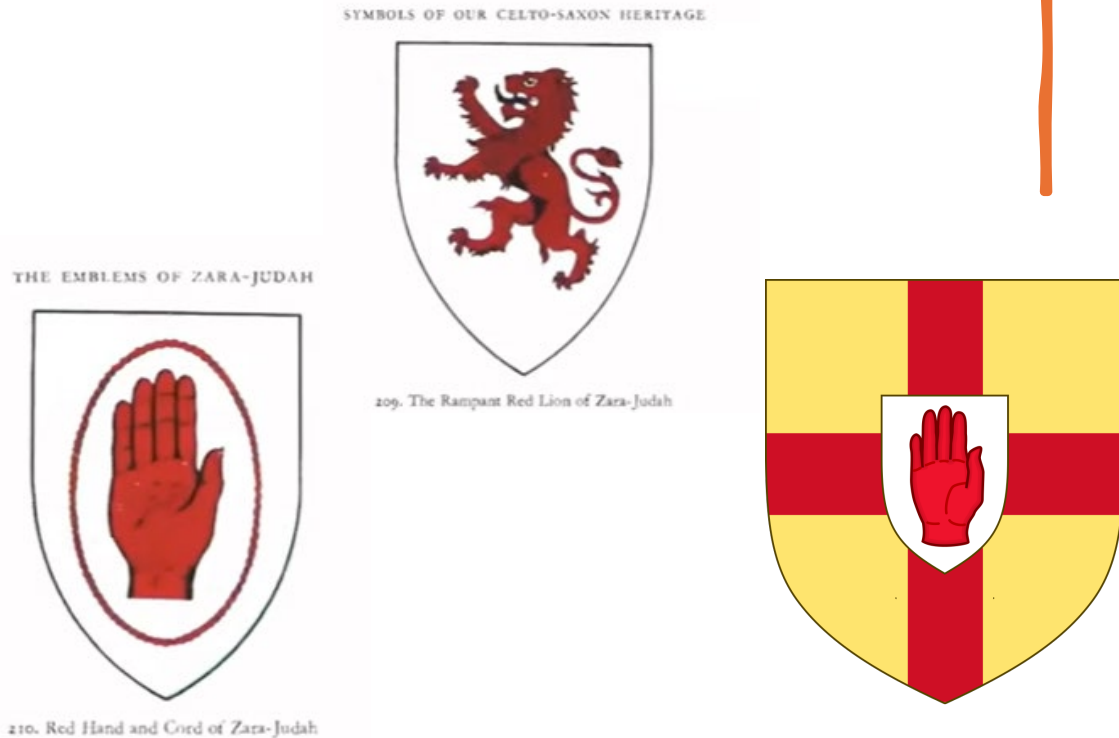

Marriage of Tea to the King of Ireland Transferred Power to Scotland and Britian

- The marriage of Herremon, a descendant of Zerah (a son of Judah), and Tea Tephi, daughter of Zedekiah and a descendant of Pharez, is interpreted by some traditions as symbolically healing the ancient division between the two lines of Judah.
- Herremon and Tea Tephi are said to have had a son named Irial Faidh, who later became a High King of Ireland their son sat as king over the Israelites.
 - Thus, the King of Zerah-Judah now ruled the House of Israel.
- This lineage is claimed to have continued through the High Kings of Ireland, later influencing the Kingship of Scotland and eventually the British monarchy.

Biblical References that May be Used

- In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north... 3:18
- Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts... 31:8 (Addressed to Israel, Ephraim, Samaria)
- Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock. 31:9-10

The Red Hand of Ulster (Northern Providence of Ireland)

High Kingship was later transferred to Scotland

A HAND, RED from the blood of birth, circled by a SCARLET THREAD or cord became an emblem of the Zara branch of the Tribe of Judah.

Three of Ulster's six counties (as well as the towns of Bangor and Dungannon) still have the Red Hand as a part of their official emblems.

Since the division of Ireland in 1920 the official Arms of Northern Ireland show the Red Hand without the Scarlet Cord.

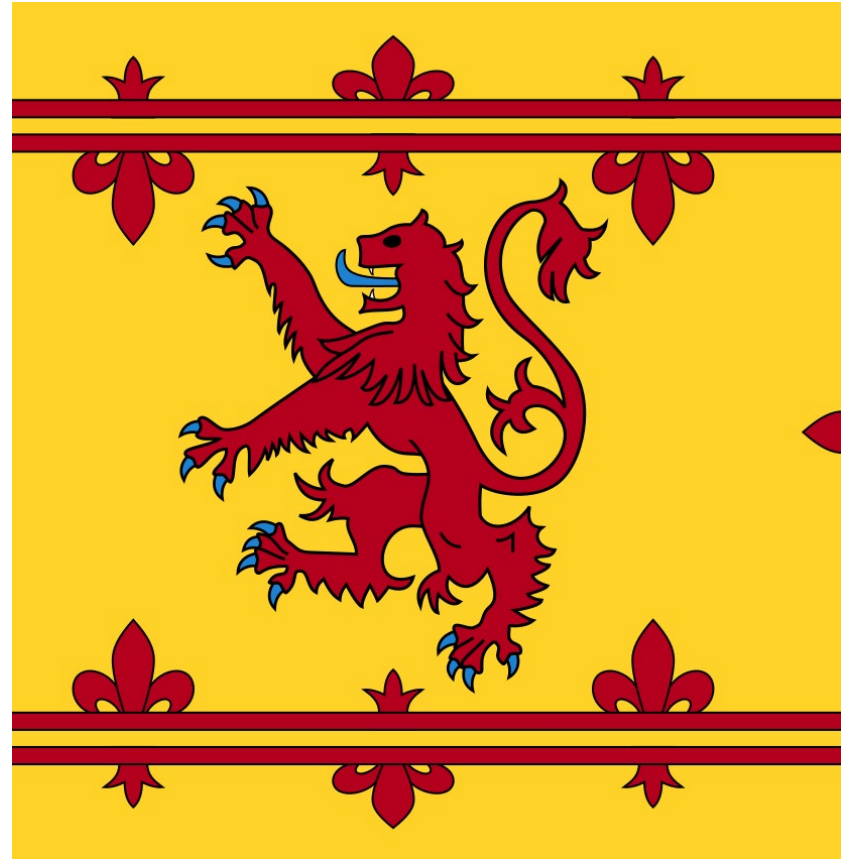

By the use of the Red Hand, some of the people of Scotland point to their Israelitish origins as descendants of the Zara branch of the Tribe of Judah.

Only people of the Royal Line can use these symbols.

Research Says...this is all about Israel's Restoration

- British Israelism is a belief that the people of Great Britain and other Western European nations are the direct genetic, racial, and linguistic descendants of the Ten Lost Tribes of ancient Israel.
- This doctrine suggests that the Northern Kingdom of Israel, exiled by the Assyrians in 722 BC, migrated to the British Isles and became the ancestors of the modern British and Anglo-Saxon peoples.
- Central to the belief is the idea that the British Royal Family is descended from King David, and that the British and American nations are the modern-day fulfillment of biblical prophecies concerning Israel's restoration.

Jesus, was the Messiah Who Came and Who is Coming Again!

- There is a group of people who do not recognize Jesus as the Messiah.
- Therefore, they are still looking for their Messiah.
- Let's look at how this belief ties into the red thread and the religion of Kabbalah behind it.

- There is an ancient tradition -- a charm-- to tie a scarlet thread around one's neck or wrist as a protection against all kinds of dangers, especially for pregnant women.
- Before the thread may be used, it must first be wound around the Tomb of Rachel.
- This transforms the simple thread into a special charm whose validity has been proven over and over again.
- Even today, one can find women circling the tomb with a scarlet thread in their hands.
- Although Boaz and the Sanhedrin were descendants of Leah, they agreed that Rachel was the mainstay of the house, and thus mentioned her name first.
- Of all the Matriarchs, Rachel stands out as the loving mother of her children throughout the generations.

Made Popular by the Kabbalah Centre

- The Red String is a protective amulet associated with the Kabbalah Centre, symbolizing defense against the "evil eye", a concept referring to negative energy from envious or ill-intentioned glances that can hinder one's potential and well-being.
- According to Kabbalistic tradition, the string is imbued with protective energy through a ritual performed annually at the tomb of Rachel, the Matriarch, located in the occupied territories near Bethlehem in Israel.
- During this ceremony, the string is wound seven times around the tomb, a practice believed to channel Rachel's protective essence, as she is seen as a figure who desires to defend her children from evil.
- The number seven is significant, symbolizing completeness and spiritual connection.
- The string is then cut into pieces and distributed globally.

- The Kabbalah Centre markets the Red String as a tool for spiritual protection and personal fulfillment, offering it in various packages that include prayers, instructions, and enough string for multiple bracelets.
- The Centre claims the string is blessed at Rachel's tomb and is part of a broader mission to make ancient Kabbalistic wisdom accessible to all, regardless of background.
- The Kabbalah Centre maintains that the Red String is a powerful spiritual tool rooted in kabbalistic tradition and prayer.
- It is worn on the left wrist (RECEIVING SIDE OF BODY), which is associated with the "desire to receive" and serves as a physical reminder to redirect selfish desires toward sharing and positive intentions.
- The wearing of the red string has been embraced by numerous celebrities, including Madonna, Leonardo DiCaprio, and Michael Jackson, contributing to its global appeal.
- "The Kabbalah Centre does not present itself as an alternative to any religion in particular, but rather as a SUPPLEMENT to it."

Rachel's Tomb in the Zohar

- According to Jewish mystical tradition, particularly the Zohar, the Messiah will lead the dispersed Jews back to the Land of Israel along the road that passes by Rachel's grave, fulfilling the 's prophecy associated with her intercession.
- This belief is tied to the idea that Rachel, as a maternal figure, continues to intercede for her children even in exile, and her tomb serves as a sacred site where the hopes and prayers of the Jewish people are directed.
- The route is considered significant because it connects the historical journey of the Israelites with the future redemption, symbolizing a return to their ancestral homeland.

From my Book, Truth is Not of This World

- According to the Kabbalah, the more powerful and truthful purpose of the Torah is only accessible to those with special knowledge and insight.
- This places the Zohar and Kabbalah firmly in the sphere of Gnosticism and Mysticism.
- Gnosticism is a belief in acquiring special, mystical knowledge as the means for salvation.
- Mysticism is a belief that one can hold immediate intercourse with the divine Spirit.
- These beliefs are clearly satanic. The Jewish authority lies with the rabbis for all these texts. The rabbis interpret and disseminate the information to those who are of the Jewish faith.
